APPLICATION FOR JUSTICE SEMINAR AND PPE MINOR
FALL 2015

Thanks for your interest in the Justice Seminar and the Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE) Minor. We can accommodate only about 16-18 students in the Justice Seminar each fall, and we often have more applicants than spaces. We ask you to return this application to help us decide whom to admit to the course and the program. The application deadline is noon on Friday, April 3. This allows us to give applicants a decision by the beginning of the DART-ing period. Late applications will still be considered if any openings remain.

Please return the application by e-mail to pweithma@nd.edu. We will e-mail decisions by the evening of Saturday, April 11 and probably before.

Name______________________
Address___________________
E-mail_____________________
Telephone__________________
What year are you now in? 1 2 3 4+
What is your (expected) major? _________________________
List the courses (if any) you have taken in Philosophy, Political Science or Economics
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
What is your GPA? __________
Are you considering graduate school? If so, in what and why?

Explain in no more than 300 words why you want to be in the PPE Concentration. (This is an important part of the application.)